Ins. Co., of Columbus, Ga. Assets, . . . $500,000

STATE INSURANCE CO., of Nashville, Tenn. Capital, - - 8200,000

W. H. MOORE, AGENT.

Office: No. 293 Main Street, With the Savings Bank of Mem-

PUBLIC LEDGER.

Office : No. 13 Madison Street.

F Y. ROCKETT MEMPHIS.

Thursday Evening, Aug 1, 1872.

HORACE GREELEY. Of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT. B. GRATZ BROWN.

Democratic Ticket for Shelby County.

of Missouri.

W. J. P. DOYLE. FOR CHANCELLOR, SAMUEL P. WALKER. FOR COUNTY TRUSTEE. A. WOODWARD.

FOR STATE AND COUNTY TAX-COLLECTOR. FOR TAX COLLECTOR ON PRIVILEGES, J. HARVEY MATRES. FOR CONSTABLES FOURTEENTH CIVIL DISTRICT. T. S. MALLORY.

MATT SHELBY. FOR CONSTABLE FIFTH CIVIL DISTRICT. FRANK BRANNAN.

MEMPHIS NEEDS A MORGUE.

A morgue or dead house is much population it is an indispensable neces sity. A place where the bodies of those may be kept for a time, in order that There have been many cases in Memphis where the cause of death remained point of view, its establishment is desir will abound. able-yet it is often the means of securing the ends of justice, and sometimes medical college will render every aid and give every information necessary to the establishment of a morgue. It would be a great assistance to the coroner, and would facilitate his duties immensely.

WE ARE SEVEN.

giving up their whole time to election- stock in his Radical business. eering in Grant's interest. They should scour the country from end to end, jump / THE Memphis Water-works Company ear, white or black, that they can lay making. Their highest duty is to election, in order that they may retain should show that Robeson is a jolly Secretary of the Navy, and Robeson should show that Belknap is a superb Secretary of War. Delano and Creswell and Williams should glorify each other's genius and management. None of them should praise bimself or the administration of his own department, for this would be regarded as selflaudation. They should all praise Grant for his eminent military talents and for his success as a soldier. If they adopt this suggestion, Grant will probably be beaten, but they will enjoy the satisfaction of having done their duty, as members of the Cabinet, in administering the various departments of the government on the stump. Boutwell is the best speaker of the lot, but all the rest of them can deliver great speeches in such a cause as this. Every true American can, at any one thinks he can't, let him wrap himself in the American flag, stick a handful of eagle's feathers in his hat, and try. We are especially anxious to see Secretary Fish compelled to take the stump."

PROTEST OF THE POPE.

The threats made by Bismarck against the Pope, and the encroachments of the Italian Government upon his temporal power, do not seem to frighten him in the least. Pope Pius denounces the usurping government for its attempts to dispoil the Apostolic See of its power. He concludes a protest to Cardinal Antonelli, his Secretary of State, in the following determined language: "No! we cannot stoop to approve the assaults against the Church, this asurpation our most sacred rights, this our charge. We are ready to face the greatest sacrifice, and if necessary to GEORGIA HOME the supreme mission we have received from on high. With the help of God, makes good blood, good blood causes we will never fail to give an example of good humors, good humors cause good by reason of the adversity of the times, the cause of God and for the welfare of souls, for the defense of the sacred leggetting good wine are so remote that ple are discussing the letter very earasouls, for the defense of the sacred leg-acy of faith, and for the integrity of mankind had better hold on to some acy of faith, and for the integrity of mankind had better hold on to some other system of salvation than the above morning papers. The Patriot publishes

PRESIDENT FOR THIRTY-SIX HOURS. That there was a President of the United States who only held his office hirty-six hours has been a strange and forgotten fact in American history David R. Atchison, of Kansas, who apon the death of Wm. R. King, a month after his inauguration as Vice President, in 1853, succeeded to the Vice Presi-President is beat told by himself to a reporter of a Kansas paper:

Reporter-You were President of the United States for about thirty-six hours, this being a Christian country, of course nothing was done on Sunday. Mr. Bu-chauan was inaugurated at noon on Mon-day. Therefore, as President of the Senate, I succeeded to the Presidency Senate, I succeeded to the Presidency when Mr. Pierce's term was out [laughingly]; but I had no realization of my high position until about ten of clock Sunday morning. We had been hard at work in the Senate finishing up business, and having lost much sleep I would probably have slept, all day had I not been awakened up by some personal friends who came to congratulate me and secure positions for gratulate me and secure positions for certain parties. In order to do everything in proper style, I appointed a full cabinet, and then it is said that my administration was the most successful and

A sum amounting to over three milernment officials during the Grant ad- of Grant." ministration. A list of over one hundred defaulters has been published, showand embezzlement are the inevitable consequences when the qualifications needed in Memphis. In cities of large required of an office-holder are not honesty, efficiency and zeal in the discharge of his legitimate functions, but fidelity impunitywho meet death easually or by murder to the President's political fortunes, and the ability to pack a convention or lead they may be recognized and undergo a platoon of voters. And whenever the the necessary medical examination. Chief Executive gives his whole time to schemes for his own re-election, and prostitutes the power of appointment an impenetrable mystery, because no and removal to his personal advantage, morgue existed. Even in a human the service will surely suffer and thieves

MR. SUMNER in his letter to the nethe way to the settlement of matters gross on the Greeley movement says, in whose adjustment is most important to the language of Sir Philip Sidney, "It the living. No doubt the faculty of the is the spirit of the Lord and it is irresistable," notwithstanding the counteracting influences of politicians. Mr. Sumner is sure that "it is not best for the colored people to band together in a hostile camp, provoking criticism and Our City Council should consider the keeping alive a separation of the races. Every colored voter should vote without constraint from a league or lodge." The colored men of Si The Cincinnati Commercial tenders doing exactly what Mr. Sumner warns the following advice to Grant and his them against. Mr. Curry has the negro "The seven members of vote in his pocket, and can transfer it to Grant's cabinet should show the country this or that candidate in order to subhow the government can be managed by serve his own interests. It is his capital on every available stump, and pour will be prepared to furnish a supply of thrilling torrents of eloquence into every water to our citizens before the close of the year. Mr. Holly, whose patent has hold of. They are not needed in been secured by the company, says a belong to the class of nobodies and raswhich they are figure-heads. Their river water in point of purity is only exmost important business is speech- celled by the famous Croton water. Be- stick to Grant, fore the water from Wolf river can reach show the necessity of Grant's re- the wells it will have to filter through an immense bed of sand; hence it will be their places. Fish should praise Bout relieved of muddiness and whatever imwell's management of the Treasury, and purities it may receive from the Mis-Botawell should eulogize fish's diplo- sippi. This is gratifying news to all matic skill in Foreign Affairs. Belknap lovers of pure water, of whom there are a goodly number in Memphis.

Twenty-five cases of arms from the Springfield Armory, directed to the State Arsenal of North Carolina, were at the wharf of the New York and New Haven to cook, and cover with the glass. In Steamboat Company in New York on lifteen minutes, there you are.

In the election in North Carolina totest. This Napoleonic style of inter- disgust and sicken the general reader fashionable with the Washington despot. particulars of an awful accident, that

A MORNING cotemporary says: "The names of merchants who do not close their doors to-day at noon and suffer lished in the Strasburg Official Gazette, gotten." The employes of merchants time, deliver an elegant speech. If any nor is there any accessity to close doors had been replaced. A clique of antigotten. We presume people can vote without interfering with their legitimate painted on their signboards.

> morning squads of negroes, armed with evening for "shirt and pants dancing tific and literary circles. The dispatches carpet-bags, were seen wending their way into the city on the roads leading from Mississippi. Other squads crossed the river in skiffs from Arkansas. The judges of election and challengers should closely watch and guard the pells. The emissaries of Radicalism are active and determined to carry the election, by fraud, if necessary. The watchwords to-day are, " Africa or America."

culpable interference of civil au- punged from the political dictionary fourteen to twenty, an ox twenty, swine The discoveries ascribed to Livingstone thority in ecclesiastical concerns. Firm since the nominations of Greeley and twenty-five, a pigeon eight, a turtle- in the Oscanus dispatches received by and immovable, we will defend with Brown by the National Democratic Con- dove twenty-five, a partridge twenty-five, foreign officers, contain no information

THE Koran forbids the use of wine, but the Moslem has decided that chamshed our blood rather than betray any paigne is lemonade; hence they use it one of the duties imposed upon us by universally. The old English winestrength and courage to the other pas- thoughts, good thoughts bring forth good tors and ministers of the Church who, works, good works carry a man to heaven-ergo, good wine carries a mansustain so nobly so many struggles in to heaven." Owing to the adulteration day morning occasioned considerable illogical prescription.

Tue Journal of Commerce, philosophizing on the demise of the New York Standard, says: "Not less than one thousand dollars a day suffices to concommercial and news correspondence of the land, and its latest costly burden dency. The history of the short-term of cable dispatches to carry. The versatility of an Admirable Crichton, the insensitiveness of an alligator's hide and the working power of a pack-horse may be mentioned as some of the quali-General—Yes. You see Mr. Pierce's fications for managing a newspaper with term expired at midnight Saturday, and success, and in addition to these—we should not place it before them all-the purse of a millionaire."

popular one ever known, there not being informed, spending the summer in Ar- trade. It is understood that the con- description. a removal or appointment during my kausas. They have been reading law in spirators have already invested $1.250. the midst of their arduous duties, and are | 000 in their game, and have more to quite prepared to enlighten the rural back them in carrying it out. They lions of dollars has been stolen by gov- population of Arkansas as to the glories have raised the price of pork in forty Governon Hadley, of Arkansas, has threatened to declare martial law in ing the amount stolen by each. Bribery Pope county if the unfortunate citizens do not return to their homes and lay down their arms, so as to give the Radical bloodhounds every opportunity to commit murder or other crimes with > GRANT has wandered off to the Thousaud Isles, in the St. Lawrence river. What a pity some Calypto does not exist on one of the islands to capture and keep our shipwrecked Telemachus for years to come! He could there forget summer overcoat which Steiner was in the unpleasant corner in which he has the habit of wearing. been placed by Pleasanton.

Tus present political campaign in Shelby county has brought forth a prolific crop of anonymous newspaper correspondents. As literary specimens, the communications are not first class. and are chiefly noted for the ungramatical and personal style in which they are

THE almost forgotten Senator Brownlow, of East Tennessee, is out in a terrible pronunciamento against Greeley. reported that they fired into a herd be-Poor old Brownlow is struggling against longing to the escort near Fort Rice, fate, but he must retire to that obscurity killing several head of emerged. "Rest, rest, perturbed spirit!"

THE sovereigns of Shelby county are rallying around the ballot-box to-day, in order to save themselves from falling into the power of the negroized party headed by Mr. A. P. Carry, the uncompromising Radical.

Accounts to the Radical organs all those who have stampeded to Greeley the administrative departments of careful analysis has shown that the Wolf cals, but the organs fail to inform us what classes do the chaps belong who

"THE hour has come and the man," but the name of the fortunate man will not be announced until the vote of the county is counted.

SAVE FUEL .- Save your fuel and don't stand over a hot stove to cook. Take, say, a dozen bricks, pile them up about a foot and a half square, get some com-We find the following in the Albany mon window glass and make a little rough frame; slice some ham; also potatoes, etc., ad libitum. Place the bricks

A down-East editor says his experiday it seems from the above that bullets ence in journalism teaches him that instead of ballots are to settle the con- there is nothing in this world that will so fering with elections is becoming too as to learn, after wading through the there is a prospect of the victim's recov-

A ministerial decree has been pubtheir employes to vote should not be for forbidding the use of French names for streets in the city, and giving a list of have never been interdicted from voting, the new German names by which they in order that the merchant may be for- German tradesmen have mot the innovation by having the old French name the dispatches brought from Africa by business—at least, they have done so in A novelty in the way of "hops" has York Herald, purporting to have been all prior elections. Then why not in this? been introduced in Boston. A ball at written by Dr. Livingstone himself, is the South End is now open every Friday being questioned to some extent in scienparties," and the attendance is confined themselves are the subject of much to the middle class who are disposed to anxious deliberation, and numerous

The following is a scale of the average duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:
A hare will live thirteen years, a cut ten, a goat eight, a sheep ten, a dog from fobriteen to twenty, an ox twenty, swine twenty-five, a pigeon eight, a turtledove twenty-five, a partridge twenty-five, a partridge twenty-five, a partridge twenty-five, a raveg one hundred, an eagle one hundred are each of the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of animal life, from the most celebrated writers on natural history:

Bawlenson writes to the British Geo-duration of the most of the THE name Democrat has been ex- a goat eight, a sheep ten, a dog from regards the Nile question as ansettled.

LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Specials to the Ledger.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 1 .- The publication of Mr. Samner's letter here yesterit without a word of comment.

The Republican says the letter of Mr. can party, and what the Republican stretching out everywhere, its sweep of party. He has deliberately gone over himself with the opponents of the men canism and who have worked out the coffee. greatest revolution the nineteenth century has seen.

A PULL vote should be polled to-day in which was the unanimous nomination of this city. Don't forget Marsh Adams' Shelby county, so that Radicalism may General Grant. The response of the benefit on Friday evening, August 2d. receive its quietus forevermore. The people in November, like a recent epi- Come one, come all.

mission men in this city, backed it is have received the latest publications, The Cincinnati Commercial of a re- said by money, have taken an immense daily papers from all points, weekly pic ent date has the following: "Some of risk in pork, and now control that mar- torials, monthly magazines, both home our colored school teachers are, we are ket, to the almost suspension of the and foreign, and news goods of every days from $12 to $16.

Nothing has yet been heard of Steiner, the late manager of the French band concerts; but it is now the theory with some that he has been robbed and mur- Office: No. 22 Madison Street. dered. He was seen driving to the depot Saturday night, having taken into his carriage a stranger who stopped him on the way and asked to be allowed to ride, as he was trying to catch the train and couldn't get a carriage. The bridgetender saw a body floating in the river on Tuesday night, but was unable to get it. He, however, fished out a light coat. which is believed to be the light

The Yellow Stone Expedition, Stoux Ciry, August 1 .- A dispatch from Fort Sully, Dakotah, says the Yellow Stone Expedition, which rendezvoused at Fort Rice for the purpose of guarding the surveying party of the Northern Pacific railroad was all ready to march on the morning of the 26th ult. and undoubtedly left at that time. The Indians are very hostile, and it is almost certain they will attack the party. It is succeed in stampeding the herd. To-day has been issue-day for beef to the House for Rent and Furniture Cheyenne agency, and many hostile Indians came in. They made a raid on the ferryboat at the agency, and the military had to be called out to recover it. A courier is expected to arrive at Fort Sally in a day or two, when the latest news from the expedition will be re-

Embezziement.

CINCIANATI, August 1 .- An embezzlement of $9000 in the Adams Express Company was developed yesterday. H. K. Whittlesly, money clerk of the Company, was the embezzler. He left the city last Saturday, stating that he was going to Louisville. Monday he did not come to the office and suspicions were aroused. Errors in his books were discovered, as he had receipted money packages without delivering them to the proper party. Superintendent L. C. Weir, finding he had not gone to Louisville, dispatched detectives on his track, and he was arrested in This city to day, being followed from Meadville, Penn. He had disposed of the money as follows: $6000 in New York bank certificates, $1000 to a kept woman, $1000 to his wife, which was recovered. His wife and child live in Newport.

Beath of an Editor.

NEW ORLEANS, August 1 .- About ten o'clock yesterday merning Mr. John Hunt, late news editor of the Mobile Tribune, died suddenly at his apartments in Dryades street, of heart disease. He was a native of England, twenty-nine years old, and of more than ordinary education and literary ability.

FOREIGN.

London, August 1 .- The authority of Stanley, the commissioner of the New behave themselves. The proprietor arguments are advanced in favor of and takes the ground that if ladies consider against their genuineness. A majority themselves dressed in "shirt waists," of the savants of the literary and geothere is no reason why "gents" should graphical societies favor Mr. Stanley, sot appear in the same cool apparel. and support the authenticity of the

Cuba to borrow sixty million dollars,

Paris, August 1.—Stanly was ban-queted last evening. Washburne and other Americans were present.

A NIBBLER.-All who have occasion to lay in family stores from the grocery will recognize the following as a fair sketch of a familiar character: A nibbler is a person who enters a grocery store, runs his fingers into every sugar barrel and laps up a couple of ounces; takes a nibble at the back of a herring; eats a handful of nuts; then goes to the cracker barrel and takes a few crackers, and perhaps before he makes up his Summer is merely a sort of supplement mind to purchase twenty-five cents worth to his speech in the closing hours of the of coffee, he has eaten up the profits of Senate. What no one in the Republi. two dollars worth of groceries. To wind it all up, after getting trusted on The thirty-six hour President was Gen. editors and reporters, its tentacles of party itself could not do, Mr. Sumner his coffee, on which the merchant makes has now done-read himself out of the a profit of three cents, he leaves the store munching an apple. This is no domestic telegrams from every corner into the camp of the enemy and allied picture of the imagination, but a reality, except that sometimes the nibbler does who since 1856 have stood by Republi- not purchase twenty-five cents worth of BROOM'S OPERA HOUSE, - Open every night, introducing fifteen first-class ar-The Chronicle, after carefully review- tists in a chaste programme offered each ing the letter, says: In this letter we evening for the amusement of the funhave a repetition of the gaul and worm- loving public. Stars of the highest wood of hate that found atterance order will appear in their different roles through his lips a few days prior to the each evening. We can boast of the Philadelphia Convention, the result of best company that ever appeared in Buy your wood from C H. John- 1872. son, 117 Poplar st., near Fourth.

EMMONS & Son, the veteran newsmen CHICAGO, August 1 .- A firm of com- at 10 Jefferson and 410 Main streets,

> INSURANCE. HERNANDO

Insurance Company

OF MEMPHIS.

H. DUNSSOMB, President.
B. GALBREATH, Vice President.
M. NELSON, Secretary.

S. H. DUNSCOMB. W. B. GALBREATH,
D. H. 10 WASEND, N. FONTAINE,
A. VACCARO,
I. J. BUSBY JOHN O. FIZER,
E. F. RISK, J. A. SHANE,
L. HANAUER, W. B. JONES,
J. H. MARTIN, W. R. MALLORY,
W. L. RADFORD.

insures against Loss by Fire, Hasee Risks on Private Dwellings especially PREMIUMS.

THE MEMPHIS AGRICULTURAL MECHANICAL SOCIETY,

FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE PAIR Grounds-official Drawn Numbers. Morning-class so. 214. 28 | 48 | 47 | 27 | 73 | 70 | 57 | 11 | 66 | 54 | 74 | 63

As witness our hands, at Memphis, this lat day of August, 1872.

Managers:

James Colewan, Toutas Wolfe, Thomas E Hills, W. O. Woodsen. General Office, 345 Second street. FOR RENT.

for Sale.

BANKING. Savings Bank of Memphis

General Banking Business.

SPECIAL ATTENTION PAID TO INVEST-Interest Allowed on Deposits On the following terms: Interest account will be made up on the lat of January and lat of July of each year. All amounts to the credit of each account on that day and that has been on deposit ninety days, 6 per cent. per annum will be allowed.

All deposits subject to be chacked out at any time, but no interest will be allowed except as above.

as above. EDUCATIONAL.

J. T. TOOP, PRINCIPAL, WILL RE-Avenue, on

Monday, September 16th, 1872. The leading characteristics of this school are as follows:

For Bork Serrs-Course of study comprehensive and practical; instructions imparted with interest and care; reviews and examinations frequent and critical; therough discipline through the employment of mild agencies; and south, coupled with intellectual advancement, rue rains consummanos.

Single deak pattern of school furniture, with all recent inventions to secure case convenience, and health; three scree of ground for recreation purposes, including two acres of fine forest trees, the whole affording a commodions common play-ground for all.

Reference is given to the following patrons of the school:

SECURITY RAILWAY COMP'Y

CHANGE OF TIME.

Memphis and Charleston Railroad

One Night's Travel and II hours Saved

introduced into the Cortes authorizing PHENIX INSURANCE COMPANY

Of Memphis, Tenn.

Capital Stock.

Office- No. 12 Madison Street. THOS. H. ALLEN, - - - - PRESIDENT.

B. F. WHITE, Jr., Secretary. GEORGE J. HENRY, Asa't Secretary. BOARD OF DIRECTORS:

Thos. H. Allen, of Thos. H. Allen & Co.
Hugh Stewart, of Stewart Bros. & Gwynne.
J. B. Day, of Day & Prouditt.
J. M. Goodbar, of Goodbar, of Goodbar & Gilliand.

WILL TAKE FIRE AND MARINE RIPKS AS LOW AS ANY GOOD COMPANY can. Risks on country dwelling houses and isolated stores specially solicited 1724

JET PALACE. JET PALACE. I. ROESCHER & CO.

We take great pleasure in announcing to the public, and the ladies in particular, that we are receiving daily attractions in our line of goods. Real Whitby Jet is all the go at present. Being manufac-tured much cheaper than usual, we offer that line at low figures, and our assortment is superb.

Attention is called to our different styles of Hair

We have made an immense reduction on all Solid Gold Goods, from the finest gold Watches and Chains Ornaments-all new.

down to plain 18-carat gold rings.

In Plate Jewelry we claim to keep the only complete stock in the city. These goods are equally as well finished as the solid gold jewelry, and are guaranteed to wear from five to ten years.

The best Jewelers and Watchmakers in our employ for all kinds of repairing and manufacturing. I. ROESCHER & CO., 326 Main st.

SUMMER TRADE. 1872.

HILL, TERRY & MITCHELL. - WHOLESALE DEALERS IN-

BOOTS, SHOES AND HATS. 329 Main Street, Memphis, Tennessee.

MERCHANTS ONLY ARE INVITED TO EXAMINE OUR STOCK OF GOODS, WHICH is now complete, having just received several hundred cases seasonable goods.

86-137

THE BUSINESS SEASON Will soon open, when merchants and all business men will need cards, billheads, bills lading, dray tickets,

THE TWO-STORY BRICK COTTAGE, NO.

201 Descript street, containing six rooms, can be rented for by a good tenant, and the furniture bought cheen, by applying at court furniture bought cheen, by applying at court furniture bought cheen, by applying at court sales, circulars, re (132-134 278 Pront street, ceipts and cotton receipt books, statements and all kinds of commercial printing. The Hope Hall Institute LEDGER JOB ROOMS have unequaled facilities for executing this class of work, and at prices compe-

Busboy, W. N. Brown, T.R. Farnsworth Goyer, W. D. Beard, J. J. Rawlings, ting with those of any city in the Toof. G. Falls,

United States. In POSTER AND

Four Daily Passenger Trains. SHOW PRINTING of every de-honor, and by every means in our power, vention at Baltimore. We are now Conthe interests of the flock entrusted to servatives or Democratic Republicans. dred, a goose one hundred.

Hand in your orders.

Hand in your orders.